Dear Mrs Elliott:

Please forgive me for not answering your letter about the rooms for the ballclubs, but knowing the owners as I do, I knew I would not get any answer to a letter, so I waited until our meeting to ask them about it. They did not seem so enthusiastic about the dormitory in the basement. They were afraid it might not be airy enough.

I am writing now to ask you to have rooms for The Eagles upstairs for Friday night May 17th. They will not get in until about 1AM, as we are playing in Baltimore that night. There will be about 20 men.

Please let me know if you will be able to take care of us. We have a very good looking team this year, and I really think the men are all pretty nice.

I hope things are going nicely for you, the baseball has it's usual quota of headaches, but the fans do really support it. There is no doubt about them wanting the baseball, judging from attendance figures.

I will be looking to hear from you.

Very Truly Yours
